Professional Profile:

Eric S. Kyler is an Account Executive based out of our Lancaster, PA office and works with commercial property and casualty accounts. As a former educator and underwriter, Eric's expertise lies in helping his clients understand the true nature of their exposure to risk. He works individually with each client to develop an all-inclusive program that mitigates risk, while reducing their total cost of risk. Eric's expertise covers a wide range of industries including specialty contractors, manufacturing, healthcare, non-profits, and hospitality to name a few.

Above all, Eric enjoys giving his time and expertise to his clients to ensure that they are well protected. He aims to serve his community in a positive manner and strives to support his clients in all of their goals.

Work Experience:

Eric worked as a math and business teacher for several years. After making the decision to chart a new path, he joined Travelers Insurance, working as a middle market underwriter. In 2017, he joined Horst Insurance as an Account Executive.
